Termonmaguirc SVP Support available for families As the P4 and P7 children in our parish make their First Holy Communion and Confirmation, we are mindful that secular pressures can detract from the pure and joyous nature of these precious sacraments. If your family, or a family that you know of, is struggling to meet the financial costs, please know that help is available via your local SVP conference. (Helpline No 07738838216). All calls are treated in strictest confidence.

Dying Matters Awareness Week aims to raise awareness of the importance of talking more openly about dying, death and bereavement. You are invited to begin a conversation about what matters in how I live my life and to begin to think ahead to a time when we may be less well or having to cope with serious ill health.
Friday 18th May, 10.30am – 12.30pm Quinn's Corner, Dungannon. For further information contact: aileen.mulligan@southerntrust.hscni.net or Tel: 07766607852

Carrickmore Regeneration The 2018 Ulster in Bloom and Best Kept Town competitions are upon us once again. Carrickmore results are improving steadily year on year. Let's pull together and make 2018 the best year yet. The competitions help us fixate on 'Our town' and what we would like it to be. If you see an opportunity site that could be enhanced or a problem area that could be rectified, take the initiative and have a go yourself or with friends. The prize for a concerted effort over the next few weeks is a town and its environs that we and our visitors can all enjoy for the rest of the year.
