Termonmaguirc Historical Society will shortly be publishing its Spring 2020 programme, with very interesting activities on offer. We begin with the 'Build Your Family Tree' genealogy Workshop The Course will run for six weeks, starting with registration night on Wednesday 4th March at 7.30 pm in the computer suite of the Milestone Centre, Carrickmore. Night 1 will also include a brief rundown on sources available for building a family tree. The number of participants is limited to 24. The cost is £30 for the six weeks. The workshops will be tutored by Hugh Ward, Michael Keenan and Pat O'Brien three men with years of experience in this field. The course will be suitable for people who have no experience with genealogy or family history research and those who have some knowledge but want to develop their skills and knowledge further. Family tree research is fast becoming the most popular form of historical research and it is anticipated that places in this workshop will be snapped up quickly. To book your place or for any other enquiries ring the course tutors on 07709102156 or 07833668983

Loughmacrory 50+ Group Next group meeting is on Mon 2nd Mar at 7pm in Community Centre. The group is delighted to announce that thanks to funding from ESB Community Fund along with the usual activities we will be offering new board games and will be running an extensive range of classes in 2020. Social Dancing and Armchair Exercise will continue until June while Crochet and Upcycling will continue until Easter. Gardening classes will commence on 23rd April. Members who enjoy knitting/crocheting are reminded to bring needles/hooks. Some wool will be supplied. New members and former participants are most welcome to join any of the classes. If interested contact any committee member to enrol. All who booked for show in Cookstown please bring £20 on Monday night so that tickets can be purchased.
