The Sacrament of Confirmation was due to be celebrated in St Colmcille's on June 7th. At the 11.30am Mass next Sunday, we will remember in prayer the Primary 7 pupils from St Teresa's & St Colmcille's as they continue to prepare for the Sacrament. Along with First Confession, First Holy Communion, Baptism and Marriage, we look forward to when these Sacraments can be celebrated once more in our Churches.

Greetings from the Armagh Diocesan Pilgrimage to Knock.
I hope you and all you love and treasure are well especially during these COVID 19 days.
We have lived to see strange and scary times!
Due to the pandemic the Shrine is closed at this time but the Pilgrimage is thankfully available online.
This Sunday May 31st the Armagh Pilgrimage is being celebrated as usual but of course it will not be the same without you.
It will be broadcast on Knock Shrine webcam at 2:30 p.m. beginning with the Rosary and Novena prayers, followed by a video Message from the Archbishop and ending with the celebration of the Pilgrimage Mass at 3p.m.
Please God next year we will be able to travel together again when the dreadful COVID 19 is but a sad memory.
In the meantime continued blessing and deep appreciation for all you do for the Pilgrimage year after year.

(Rev) Canon Benny Fee P.P.
