SVP Termonmaguirc
It takes only one change in circumstance to cast any one of us into hardship and the Lockdown period has brought huge changes for our entire community.
Many families are dealing with employment insecurity, loss of earnings and other such pressures which bring significant financial stresses. If you are experiencing difficulty at this time, please know that help is available from your local SVP Conference. Similarly, if you know of anyone who is struggling to meet essential costs, please alert them to our helpline facility.
SVP works in a strictly confidential manner and all support is provided with complete discretion.
