This year's theme 'Together we can do more - Blessed are the peacemakers' is highlighting that our Church is a global community that must stand together if it is to do more.

COVID-19 brings much fear, but it also shows us that selfless and courageous actions are not reserved solely for saints. In fact they are found in every one of us, and that by acting together we can achieve more. The theme also recognises our missionaries as peacemakers. In many of our poorer parishes in Africa, Asia, and Latin America, it is missionaries who are on the front line.

We already owe these women and men so much, as they walk hand-in-hand with marginalised communities, long before and after any emergency. Just like Jesus, the Prince of Peace, missionaries emulate love and harmony as they reconcile fragile people, from fractured communities, with God and with each other.

Apostolic Work There is no display of Vestments or Knitting this year on Mission Sunday due to restrictions of Covid 19. The annual Apostolic collection will be taken up at a date to be arranged. Thank you for your continued support

Pope John Paul II Awards Congratulations to the nine young people who recently received their awards and for participating at the Mass as Eucharistic Ministers, Readers and Prayers of the Faithful. Thanks to Sara for organizing the liturgy and to Jackie and Eamon for enhancing with music and singing.

"We pray that by the virtue of baptism, the laity, may participate more in areas of responsibility in the Church. No one has been baptized a priest or a bishop. We have all been baptized as lay people. Today, it is especially necessary to create broader opportunities for a more incisive female presence in the Church. We must promote integration, especially where important decisions are made. We pray that by the virtue of baptism, the laity, especially women, may participate more in areas of responsibility in the Church, without falling into forms of clericalism that diminish the lay charism." Pope Francis
