Sincere thanks for your ongoing contributions to the Weekly Collections

Next Sunday is World Mission Sunday when the Holy Father invites all Catholics to contribute to a special collection for Missio, his charity for world mission.

The National Director for Ireland, Fr Michael O'Sullivan has written to all parishes and said;
The pandemic adds even more challenges for missionaries, many of whom are in war-torn countries; remote areas where political conflicts, violent protests, extreme poverty, malnutrition, and diseases are rife. These are crises faced on a daily basis and, looking beyond COVID-19, sadly these crises will remain. I know how challenging these times are. Although we may suffer here in Ireland, let us spare a thought and a prayer for our brothers and sisters overseas who are struggling to survive in the face of much adversity. I thank you for your continued help at this time. Be assured of my prayers for you all.

There is a Mission Envelope in the box of envelopes for next Sunday's collection and further envelopes are available in the Church porches should they be required. Thank you.

"Christian church leaders all over this island, formally recommend and encourage the use of face coverings at all Masses and other liturgical celebrations, along with the ongoing maintenance of 2 metre physical distancing."

Archbishop Eamon Martin
