Ash Wednesday and the beginning of Lent

This will provide renewed opportunities for reflection and conversion - albeit under very challenging pastoral circumstances. With the "Stay at Home" message, and continuing public health restrictions on gathering for worship, we clearly cannot call people to gather in any way for the distribution of ashes in Ireland - north or south. For this reason, we have been concentrating on developing resources to help people at home mark the beginning of Lent and enter into the spirit of this holy season. Please see the following link on armaghprays for resources which families can use. www.armaghprays.com/lent-2021
These resources include a prayer service for Ash Wednesday at Home, with scripture reading, prayers of the faithful and an opportunity to make Lenten promises. The link also includes an invitation to symbolically mark - both personally and as a family - the importance of this moment. Archbishop Eamon Martin
