Holy Hour for Vocations to Priesthood - St Patrick's Cathedral, Armagh, Friday 23rd April, 8-9pm People are welcome to join in prayer via the Webcam: www.armaghparish.net/cathedral-webcam/
In his message for World Day of Vocations which is to be celebrated on Sunday 25th April, Pope Francis says: "The Lord's call is not an intrusion of God in our freedom; it is not a "cage" or a burden to be borne. On the contrary it is the loving initiative whereby God encounters us and invites us to be part of a great undertaking. He opens before our eyes the horizon of a greater sea and an abundant catch".

Synodal Pathway for the Catholic Church in Ireland

The Irish Catholic Bishops' Conference announced a new Synodal Pathway leading to the holding of a National Synodal Assembly within the next five years.
Next June, at their Summer General Meeting, bishops intend to establish a task group to plan and oversee the first steps along the synodal pathway. This task group will be made up of lay women and men, including young people, religious, priests and bishops. The next two years (2021-2023) will be a period of prayer, listening and discernment, involving a nationwide consultative conversation on the theme: "For a synodal Church: communion, participation and mission". This will allow individuals and parishes, religious orders and associations as well as groups, movements and organisations, both within the Church and in Irish society at large, to share their insights into the Church in Ireland – past, present and future.
What does it mean for the Catholic Church in Ireland to embark on a synodal pathway? It means walking together on our pilgrim way in faith towards God, conscious of our God-given gifts. Essentially, it is listening intently to each other. We are then called to engage in reflecting and praying together about what we are hearing. We journey in this way to allow the Holy Spirit to guide us in our mission of proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ in Ireland and beyond. www.catholicbishops.ie/synod
