International Eucharistic Congress, Budapest 5th to 12th September
At a time when the world faces a variety of geo-political crises and now a global pandemic, the theme of the International Eucharistic Congress reminds us that all life comes from God. In English, the theme is translated "All My Springs are in You" and may initially sound a bit strange.
It comes from Psalm 87, which celebrates Jerusalem as the place where God lives among his people. The "springs" refer to the fountains in the city of Jerusalem. Many people will know that, throughout the bible, streams and fountains are often used as a symbol of the gift of life and faith that comes from God. Drawing on the rich Eucharistic theology that has its origins in the Gospels and in the writings of St Paul, the Eucharist is described in the documents of the second Vatican Council as the "source and summit" of the Christian life. It is a way of saying that everything we are as Christians flows from the body of Christ, who died and is risen.

Pope Francis established September 1st as the annual World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation. It is a time marked throughout the Christian world from 1st Sept to 4th October (Feast of St. Francis of Assisi) and celebrates the joy of creation as well as encourages awareness-raising initiatives to protect the natural environment. The theme this year is Restoring Our Common Home. We celebrate in the awareness that we continue to deal with the COVID-19 crisis and that the environmental crisis and this health crisis are interconnected. Both are global emergencies that affect many people, both are experienced most deeply by the poor and vulnerable, and both expose the deep injustices in our societies. Both will be solved only through a united effort that calls on the best of the values we share to protect our common home.
