Armagh Clergy Gathering The theme this year; "proclaim the Good News to the whole creation" (Mark 16:15), has been carefully chosen to help reflect some of the commentary coming back from the Synodal discussions that have been taking place across the diocese for some time now.

Alcohol Awareness Week 18-25 November Local people, from all backgrounds are being urged to think about drinking and the effects on Families as we approach Alcohol Awareness Week. Al-Anon wishes to remind the community that help is available for anyone who needs it. In Northern Ireland there are 30 Al-Anon groups. They provide support to anyone whose life is or has been affected by someone else drinking. A spokesperson said 'Whatever your story, you can expect to be warmly welcomed, and not judged or pressurised in any way. Anything discussed within an Al-Anon meeting is treated as confidential, including your presence at the meeting. 'By attending Al-Anon Family Group meetings, individuals discover that they didn't cause the problem, and cannot control or cure it. They also learn how best to cope with their situation by switching their focus from the alcoholic to themselves. Whatever your relationship to the drinker, whatever your story, Al-Anon can help. We hold regular meetings where members share their own experience of living with alcoholism. Our Information Office, based in Belfast is opened from 10am – 1pm Monday to Friday; Ph 02890682368. All meetings are listed on the website www.al-anonuk.org.uk, or you can call our Confidential Helpline 02890682368 10am – 1pm or 6pm – 10pm daily.
